(b)(3)

Attention: Mr. T. H. Bresson

Dear Mr. Bresson:

As [redacted] discussed over the telephone with you on 7 April 1975, this Agency has received a request from Congressman John E. Moss for any information the Agency may have on him. In its response to the Congressman, the Agency advised him that it has three reports provided to CIA by another government agency in which his name is mentioned collaterally. He wanted us to identify the reports but he has since withdrawn his request. I understand he has levied a query for his file on you. You might take a look at the following reports which are marginally relevant.

a. A report dated 13 March 1968 from the Bureau Headquarters. Subject: Boris N. Sedov.

b. A report dated 4 May 1970 from the Bureau Headquarters. Subject: Artem O. Melikyan.

c. A report dated 26 October 1971 from the Bureau Headquarters. Subject: Viktor Fedorovich Isakov.

This information is being forwarded to you for review and direct response to Congressman Moss.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Robert S. Young
